

Damage Waiver Charge

The damage waiver charge protects you against additional costs for certain accidental damage to the rental equipment while it is in your possession. This optional charge will be included in your rental unless you specifically decline the DWC when the contract is written. DWC is not insurance. You will be responsible for any repairs to or replacement of the equipment if you decline the DWC. DWC does not cover abuse, neglect, or theft.